

Marriage Equality at a Glance

Where is same-sex marriage already legal?

- Netherlands 2001
- Belgium 2003
- Canada 2005
- Spain 2005
- South Africa 2006
- Norway 2009
- Sweden 2009
- Mexico City (Mexico) 2010
- Portugal 2010
- Iceland 2010
- Argentina 2010
- Quintana Roo (Mexico) 2011
- Uruguay 2013
- New Zealand 2013
- France 2013
- Brazil 2013
- England 2014
- Wales 2014
- Scotland 2014
- Luxembourg 2015
- Guam 2015
- Pitcairn Islands 2015
- Chihuahua (Mexico) 2015
- United States 2015
- Greenland 2015
- Guerrero (Mexico) 2015
- Colombia 2016
- Isle of Man 2016
- Puerto Rico 2016

What is the level of support in Australia?

72% of Australians support marriage equality .

85% of young Australians (18-34 years of age) support marriage equality.

85% of Australians with children support marriage equality.

77% of Australians support a free vote on same-sex marriage (Crosby Textor, 2014).

What are the benefits of marriage equality?

- A fairer country for all and fulfilment of our national values of equality and inclusion Better health outcomes for same-sex attracted Australians due to removal of stigmatising laws.
- Greater security and stability for same-sex couples and their families.
- Bolsters marriage by showing it's commitment that counts not gender.
- Improvement to Australia's human rights reputation.
- At least $160 million over three years to small businesses in the wedding industry.

Who supports marriage equality?

- Hugh Jackman, Emmy-winning actor
- Magda Szubanski, Actor & comedian
- David Foster, World Champion axeman
- Adam Goodes, former AFL star
- David Pocock, Wallabies Captain
- Jennifer Hawkins, Model and former Miss Universe
- Jeff Kennett, former Victorian Liberal Premier
- Tasmanian, NSW, & WA governments (have passed motions in support)
- Geoffrey Rush, Australian actor
- Rev Bill Crews & over 100 other faith leaders
- Nick Greiner, Former NSW Liberal Premier